“A rush of wind battered the air, and looking up I saw a pale shape alight on a spar that stretched between two pillars. Its body was whip-slender, an articulate metal serpent with two thin legs and shoulders barely broader than a boy's. Its armored white head bore a horned crown like the ones on Hushansa's puppet bodies. As I watched, it folded huge, gossamer wings and slid down the column

Kingdoms of Death, Chapter 27: The White Hand

“It's the Hand,” I said, and I was shocked to hear just how quiet my voice was.

As if to answer the question no one had time to ask, a thin, white shape landed on the canopy of shuttle, gripping the frame with slender hands. Membranous huge wings spread wide, filling our vision and the air. Aulamn's red eyes pierced the canopy and locked onto my face. It did not speak, but offered that horrid cry again as a short appendage flicked up over its left shoulder like the tail of scorpion. I recognized the energy-lance an instant before it fired
