

Echidna

The first Cielcin worldship captured and impounded by the Sollan Empire for study. A dwarf planet converted into a starship by the Cielcin Prince LARAMNAINA. Captured by Imperial forces under the command of Lord CASSIAN POWERS after the Second Battle of Cressgard in ISD 15797. Archaeological digs found the bones of a Watcher amongst the Vaiartu writing and graven images.

“ Although a larger ship’s warp engine would warp space more efficiently once it fired, it was well known that the larger the vessel, the slower the jump to warp. The Cielcin worldships were notoriously slow to jump. It made catching them in a rout more possible. That was how Cassian Powers himself had caught the vessel-moon called Echidna at Second Cressgard, crippling her engines before she could jump to warp.
