

ISD 17136 - Battle of Perfugium

MAJOR SERIES SPOILERS, PROCEED WITH CAUTION

During EMPEROR WILLIAM XXIII's tour of the Centaurine frontier, the Cielcin, loyal to SYRIANI DORAYAICA and led by VAYADAN ATTAVAISA and VAYADAN HUSHANSA, sieged the Imperial storehouses on Perfugium. Seven worldships blockaded the planet, and of the millions in the Imperial entourage, only six thousand remained behind to coordinate the evacuation of nine million sleepers (seed stock for colonial expansion and defense) from the capital city's catacombs. Only three hundred thousand survived. Following the events at Perfugium, HADRIAN MARLOWE leaves the service of the Empire and begins his time of exile on Jadd.

“ The Phoenix of Perfugium.

I was not with him in his hour of glory, whatever the stories say—nor was his victory my failure. I did not even see it, unless it was in those red flashes in our sky. As I stood there, hollow and broken again, Lin pulled off one of the most stunning rescues in Imperial naval history. His fleet scattered, his ships outgunned, Bassander Lin managed to intercept and salvage the refugees who had escaped Resonno and Perfugium’s gravity entire.

Six hundred twenty-three ships had made it into orbit in those first four waves.

More than three hundred thousand people.

Lin saved six hundred and six.

So many. So few.
